Av dear Mr. Cox: The Alabama Department of Archives and History is grateful to you for your generosity in providing bound copies o THE ELBA CLIPPER for our files. We endeavor to main tain complete files of all newspapers published in the state. The benefit to scholars, local historians, and indeed to county offices and newspapers has been proven through the years. Quite naturally, the papers are best preserved in good binding, but the burden on our meager appropiation to bind all papers has been too great for us. Your cooperation and that of Mr. Lewis of the American Ar-HRDC Office on Putnam St. invites participation in Ceramic chives Book Bindery in Albertville is of immeasurable assistance to us.

Graduates . Keception

The Fort Worth home of Jack Smith was the beautiful setting for a reception honoring several graduates of Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary on May 12, at 1:00 p.m. Jack Smith and his mother, Margaret Brunson Smith, were host and hostess for the graduates and their parents. Mrs. J.D. Padgett of Fort Worth was the honored guest for the occasion. The reception was held in honor of several close friends of Mr. Smith who had also received their Master of Religious Education degree from Southwestern Seminary earlier that day. The guests were greeted at the door by the Smiths and were served delicious refreshments. Those attending included: Mr. Jack Smith, Elba, Alabama; Mrs. Margaret B. Smith, Elba,
